

Mount Diablo Creek Watershed Plan

April 2007

Prepared by:

The Mount Diablo Creek Watershed Planning Group and
The Contra Costa Resource Conservation District

Funding for this Watershed Plan

was made possible by:

The CALFED Watershed Program
The State Water Resources Control Board
The San Francisco Bay Regional Water
Quality Control Board

CALFED
BAY-DELTA
PROGRAM

Acknowledgements

Planning Group Participants:

Lisa Anich, Friends of Mount Diablo Creek
Polly Boissevain, Friends of Mount Diablo Creek
Cathy Carpenter, watershed resident from Concord
Sylvia Chatagnier, teacher, Diablo View Middle School
Mary Delamater, landowner
W.C. Delamater, landowner
Bill Feil, Land for Urban Wildlife
Helene Feil, Land for Urban Wildlife
Hsun Hsueh, watershed resident
Arlene Kikkawa-Nielsen, Clayton Community Library Foundation
Bob Malucelli, watershed resident from Concord
Diane Malucelli, watershed resident from Concord
Bill Morgan, landowner
Cheryl Morgan, landowner
Naomi Morgan, landowner
Dee Munk, Contra Costa Farm Bureau, watershed resident
Jeff Roubal, City of Concord Clean Water Program
Jean Toland, watershed resident from Concord
Jim Toland, watershed resident and CCRCD Board President
Phil Torres, rancher in the watershed
Rich Walter, Concord resident
Cindy Welles, watershed resident from Clyde

Contributors:

Sheila Barry, University of California Cooperative Extension
John Cain, Natural Heritage Institute
Jamison Crosby, Contra Costa County Watershed Program
Jim Hale, Contra Costa Fish and Wildlife Committee
Laura Hoffmeister, Clayton Clean Water Program and Concord City Council
Lisa Hokholt, USDA, Natural Resources Conservation Service
Dale Hopkins, Regional Water Quality Control Board
Dean McLeod, local historian
Karl Malamud-Roam, Contra Costa Mosquito and Vector Control District
John Roskelley, California State Parks
Cyndy Shafer, California State Parks
Rich Walkling, Natural Heritage Institute

Staff:

Jessica Hamburger, Contra Costa Resource Conservation District
Linda Ballentine, Contra Costa Resource Conservation District
Carol Arnold, Contra Costa Resources Conservation District
Drew Goetting, Restoration Design Group

Mount Diablo Creek Watershed Management Plan was developed by the Mount Diablo Creek Watershed Planning Group and Contra Costa Resource Conservation District. 2007

To obtain a copy of this plan, contact the Contra Costa Resource Conservation District at:

5552 Clayton Rd.
Concord, CA 94521

Phone: (925) 672-6522 x118
www.ccrd.org

Photographs on front cover:

Watershed View from Chaparral Springs.....Jessica Hamburger
Planning Group Meeting.....Jessica Hamburger
Bunkers at Concord Naval Weapons Station.....U. S. Navy
Diablo View Science Class Monitoring on Mount Diablo Creek.....Linda Ballentine
Cattle on Clayton Hillside.....Jessica Hamburger
Mount Diablo Fairy Lantern Native Flower.....Junko Bryant

Contents

PART I. WATERSHED INFORMATION

1.	Project Background
1.1	Watershed Planning Process	1
1.2	Watershed Profile	6
1.3	Cooperation with Other Local Planning Efforts	8
1.4	The Larger Context	9
2.	Changes in the Watershed
2.1	Land Use History	12
2.2	Land Cover Changes	16
2.3	Changes in the Creek and Riparian Corridor	17
2.4	Changes in the Ponds and Wetlands	19
3.	State of the Watershed
3.1	Watershed Health	20
3.2	Status of Terrestrial and Wetland Habitats	32
3.3	Natural Hazards	35
3.4	Other Hazards	38
3.5	Quality of Life	40
3.6	Watershed Stewardship	43

PART II. CURRENT MANAGEMENT AND RECOMMENDATIONS

1.	Watershed Education and Stewardship	45
2.	Watershed Approach to Creek Bank and Flood Management	49
3.	Future of the Concord Naval Weapons Station	53
4.	Watershed-Friendly Gardening and Landscaping	57
5.	Pollution Prevention	63
6.	Rangeland Management	67
7.	Water Use Efficiency and Conservation	69
8.	Habitat Conservation and Restoration	71

LIST OF ACRONYMS	73
------------------	----

APPENDICES	A-1-1
------------	-------

REFERENCES	R-1
------------	-----